2 Vicarage Lane

Elham, Canterbury

A truly charming cottage in the picturesque village of Elham, surrounded by idyllic village scenery with the scenic 'St Mary's' Saxon church as a back drop. The property boasts brand-new UPVC sash windows and a new front door, which opens to a welcoming hallway. The living room features a bay window and a multi-fuel burning stove with a fireplace surround originating from 'Dorchester House', a historic London building, which adds a unique historical element that makes the property even more special. The spacious kitchen/dining room also has a multi fuel burning stove and there is a convenient utility room and cloakroom/WC. To the first floor there is a spacious bathroom/WC and two bright and light double bedrooms. Outside the frontage provides off road parking and an attractive border bed and to the rear there is pretty paved courtyard garden with pedestrian access gate.
