

Victoria Street, Melton Mowbray
Offers Over £165,000

Character charm and period proportions combine to form this end of terrace home situated on the highly regarded Victoria Street to the south of Melton Mowbray, boasting a well-presented interior, excellent reception dimensions and a modern touch throughout. Situated within walking distance of Melton Mowbray's town centre, train station, primary, secondary and post-16 schooling and leisure facilities. Neatly enclosed by a low level brick wall and gate to the front, entrance is direct into the living room which offers a generous bay window injecting an abundance of natural light. There is also a feature gas fireplace. The accommodation flows into a formal dining room or second reception room which is open plan to the kitchen, offering versatile accommodation for simultaneous culinary endeavours and entertainment. Stairs rise to the first floor offering two double bedrooms and a modern family bathroom with bath and separate shower. The current vendors have enjoyed the character of their home, exposed brickwork features in some of the rooms and being within a convenient location so close to all of the town's offerings.
