Worminghall is a highly sought after village which is in the catchment area for the Aylesbury grammar schools and Wheatley Park Secondary School (formerly attended by the Prime Minister). The local primary school, in the neighbouring village of Ickford, is high on the National League Tables and there are independent schools at nearby Dorton, or the university town of Oxford. Worminghall benefits from a Grade II listed Norman Church, a Seventeenth Century Almshouse, a popular village inn, and a village hall which hosts various clubs and activities. The neighbouring hamlet of Waterperry has stunning gardens and holds arts and craft events. The market town of Thame is within 10 minutes' drive where a wide range of shops and facilities can be found including a Waitrose. Oxford, city of academia and dreaming spires is seven miles away. The station, at nearby Haddenham, has access to London Marylebone (fastest train 34 minutes), Bicester, with its international Designer shopping area and Birmingham. The M40 is a short drive away giving access to London, Birmingham and the northern networks.
