Description

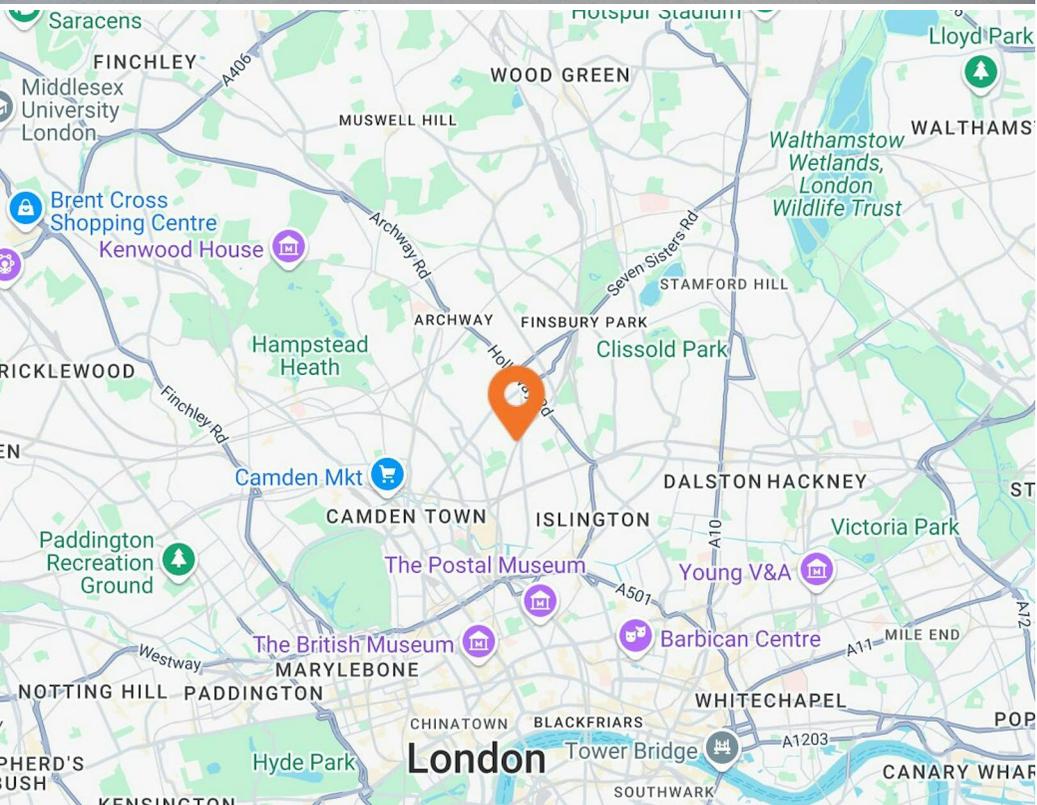

1 Market Road is a key component of the broader Cally Yard development, which counts The Gym Group among its tenants.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a single-story building with a private entrance and prominent street frontage. Large dual-aspect windows provide a prime branding opportunity, while the high ceilings and open-plan layout make the space versatile for clinics, health centres, dentists, crèches, day nurseries and art galleries.

Location

Caledonian Road, or "Cally Road" to locals, is rapidly becoming a go-to location for businesses in London's N7. With its direct links to central London via the Piccadilly Line and Overground, it offers both accessibility and a unique mix of old and new London charm. This area seamlessly combines historic character with modern flair, seen in its Victorian-era architecture alongside newly developed workspaces and creative hubs.

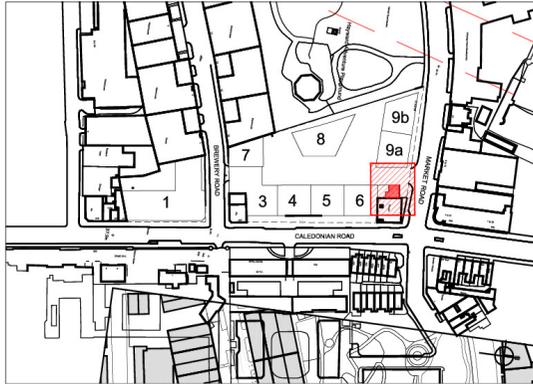

Trendy spots like The Depot and The Pleasance Theatre are popular among professionals for post-work gatherings, while proximity to King's Cross offers convenient connections and a thriving cultural scene. Cally Road provides a balance of practicality and inspiration, ideal for businesses looking to plant roots in one of London's most evolving neighbourhoods.
