Stoke by Nayland is one of the areas most favoured villages standing on the edge of a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty captured in paintings by Gainsborough and Constable. There are two award winning restaurants, a post office with village stores, a primary school and an imposing parish church complemented by a variety of medieval architecture. The A12 is 3 miles and Hadleigh is 7 miles. Colchester, with its comprehensive range of amenities and commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street Station, is 9 miles.

A three bedroom (two en-suite) detached property enjoying period detailing although dating from the 1960's enjoying an attractive aspect, nestled amidst gently rolling farmland located on the periphery of the highly regarded Stoke-by-Nayland. Lying on the Suffolk/Essex border, the property is situated in the pretty hamlet of Thorington Street, set within a cluster of individual, distinctive period properties. Extended during the current owners tenure, the accommodation is arranged via two distinctive ground floor reception rooms enjoying an open plan aspect, ground floor bedroom accommodation with an adjacent shower room and an extended entrance hall. Discreetly positioned, hidden from view with notable retained features including a granite topped kitchen, bay windows, a brick fireplace with open grill and dual aspect study. Providing en-suite facilities for two first floor double bedrooms with further benefits including a driveway with space for approximately four vehicles, walled gardens enveloping the property and a south facing side aspect with dense planting, established borders and strategic planting.
