The Property

The property forms part of a continually sought after development of similar bungalows constructed in the 1960s and is quietly situated overlooking an area of designated 'green' space.

Upon entering the property there is a hallway which serves all principal rooms. The excellent living room overlooks the front garden and has the benefit of an additional wide arched area which could be utilised as dining space if desired. The well fitted kitchen comprises a range of appliances together with boiler cupboard. This room overlooks the pleasant south westerly facing secluded rear garden. From the kitchen a glazed panelled door leads to a most useful side porchway with doors to the front and rear.

There is excellent storage in the hallway including an airing/linen cupboard together with access hatch to the loft space. Two double bedrooms, together with a fully tiled bathroom complete the picture. Once in the delightful rear garden, there is a self-contained garden room adjacent to the property, whilst the remainder of the garden has a level lawned area bordered by a variety of shrubs and timber panelled fencing. Timber garden store, external power supply and outside tap. An excellent driveway provides parking and continues to the attached garage which has a metal up and over door, together with an internal measurement of approximately 16' x 8'.
