Offering almost 1000sq ft of living space, this very well presented three bedroom family home feels bright and airy, with a lovely open plan lounge / dining room, gorgeous conservatory and modern kitchen with high spec integrated appliances. Two of the bedrooms are doubles, the third being a good single. The principal bedroom has full width fitted wardrobes and the stylish bathroom feels smart and modern. There is a useful ground floor cloakroom / wc.

There is driveway parking for two cars in front of an attached single garage. Being end of terrace, there is scope to extend, subject to the usual consents being attainable. The front and rear gardens offer plenty of room for children to play or for adults to relax with family and friends.

The primary school is only a few minutes walk away, as is the youth club, the friendly RH20 Studio gym, the community centre, recreation ground, play parks, village pub and a number of shops. The newly opened "Tate at Home" cafe is just down the road and The Bicycle Exchange also offers coffee and cakes. There is an excellent takeaway in the village, along with a Co-Op shop and post office, a pharmacy, BP garage with M&S food store, plus the Curry Lounge Indian restaurant. Older kids catch a bus to Steyning Grammar from a stop nearby. All local amenities are within easy reach.
