Why you'll like it

Presenting for sale this marvellous detached bungalow, a charming home of character and comfort. The property is nestled in a peaceful cul-de-sac, conveniently located close to public transport links, local amenities, and nearby schools. Viewing is essential

This beautiful bungalow offers two spacious reception rooms, providing ample space for both relaxation and entertainment. Reception room one is a separate living area, enhanced by an inviting fireplace, while the second reception room previously used as the dining room, perfect for hosting dinner parties and family meals.

The property boasts a modern kitchen, bathed in natural light, featuring a practical kitchen island that adds to the functionality of the space. Offering two double bedrooms, the master bedroom is particularly spacious, complete with built-in wardrobes, while the second bedroom features patio doors leading to the outside, inviting a touch of nature into your living space.

The property is serviced by a bathroom equipped with a heated towel rail, ensuring comfort and warmth on those colder mornings. Unique features of the property include a detached garage with power and tap, a well-maintained garden, and solar panels, contributing to the property's energy efficiency.

One of the key advantages of this property is the opportunity to extend, allowing the new homeowner to add their own touch and perhaps increase the value of the property. (Subject to the relevant planning permissions) This home is a gem, offering an inviting retreat while also being conveniently located for everyday living. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to own such a charming property.
