The image shows the interior of a cottage. The ceiling is white with several thick, dark wooden beams running across it. The walls are a light cream color. On the left, there is a window with white curtains and floral patterned curtains. Below the window is a white radiator. In the center-right, there is a brick fireplace with a dark metal surround. To the right of the fireplace is a built-in white shelving unit with several shelves holding various decorative items like vases and books. A framed picture hangs on the wall above the fireplace. The floor is covered in a light-colored carpet. The overall atmosphere is warm and traditional.

£650,000

Church Cottage provides a rare opportunity to acquire a quintessentially English thatch cottage set on a stunning, almost half an acre plot in heart of the village. Offering unexpectedly spacious rooms with lots of character. Landmark property with loads of kerb appeal.

Stanley village is located halfway between Ilkeston and Derby surrounded by countryside and boasting its own Post Office, local pub and village school. Local commuter routes provide easy access to Ilkeston, Derby and Nottingham as well as a regular local bus service.

Entrance to the property is via an entrance hall leading to the ground floor living spaces as well as a guest WC fitted with a low flush WC and wash basin. The dining room has a large window overlooking the rear garden, beamed ceiling and an opening through to the sitting room. The sitting room has two windows overlooking the front garden, beamed ceiling and an open fire with brick surround. The "L" shaped living room has double aspect windows and a feature fireplace with an oak surround and a living flame gas fire. A latch door leads to a stairwell rising to the first floor. The kitchen sits on the opposite side of the entrance hall and has double aspect windows, fitted with a range of base and eye level units with plenty of space for appliances. A latch door leads off the kitchen to the second staircase leading to the first floor.

On the first floor there are four excellent double bedrooms, two of which can be accessed off the kitchen end of the property. There is a small hatch door that links this side of the house to the other, accessed through the bedrooms and great fun for children - a bit more less convenient for adults! The bathroom is also located on the other side of the house and is fitted with a three piece suite.

Outside the property is set well back from the road behind a lovely manicured beech hedge and behind which is a lawned front garden with herbaceous borders. There are two driveways accessed via five bar wooden gates on either side of the house, the first provides plenty of off road parking as well as access to the attached garage. The driveway on the opposite side provides even more parking and access along the side of the property and to the rear. The spectacular rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with flower beds and borders with mature trees and views over the church. There is a greenhouse and garden shed at the end of the garden and adjacent to the house is a spacious patio perfect for outdoor entertaining. There is plenty of outdoor storage with two large brick outhouses and storage cupboards off the garage interior.
