This impressive five-bedroom semi-detached bungalow, spanning approx. 203 sq. m (2190 sq. ft) occupies a generous plot in a desirable private road. The property boasts a versatile layout designed for modern living, including two entrances, one which is adaptable as a further garage/hobby space. The airy sunroom opens to the dining room and kitchen, flowing seamlessly to the living room. A unique feature is the double bedroom with WC, which is connected to a dedicated cinema/family room. This space could provide an annexe. The bedrooms are towards the front of the property leading off the original hallway. The principal bedroom has an en suite and there is a spacious family bathroom. There is also air conditioning that provides cooling and heating. The rear garden extends some 20.7 m (68 ft) with the front driveway providing parking for numerous vehicles, detached double garage. All set behind an electric sliding gate providing a great deal of privacy. Energy Rating: C
