LOCATION

The Waterfront

Nestled at West Quay Harbour with captivating views of Upton Lake and the iconic Twin Sails Bridge, The Waterfront introduces a collection of exceptional one, two and three bedroom homes complemented by exclusive communal facilities.

Situated in Poole, renowned for possessing the worlds second largest natural harbour and boasting 15 miles of award-winning golden sandy beaches, a vibrant quayside, and a charming historic old town, The Waterfront effortlessly merges accessibility and luxury.

Boasting a prime location within walking distance of Poole's town centre, the quayside, train station, and a bus station right outside the development, The Waterfront provides easy connections to the wider area.

Beyond its architectural appeal, the development contributes to the community by establishing a public link between the town centre and the Southwest, as well as Holes Bay Nature Park to the Northwest. The creation of a new promenade enhances public access to the quayside, solidifying The Waterfront as a distinguished destination in Poole.
