Love it or list it! Extended village bungalow requiring renovation and updating. Offered for sale with no upward chain and full of potential, it has two bedrooms, bathroom, extended breakfast kitchen, lounge, parking, garage and gardens to the rear. Popular location.

A typically English country village where you can embrace all the qualities of village life. The village benefits from a most strategic position lying within 1 mile of junction 11 of the M42, which makes commuting to both Tamworth and Birmingham less than 1 hour and links in perfectly to the M1 with the cities of Leicester, Nottingham and Derby within easy reach. The market towns of Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Market Bosworth, Measham and Burton on Trent are all within close proximity. The village enjoys an excellent local Primary School, Church and the Black Horse Pub; famed for its excellent beers and food.

The property sits back behind a lawned fore garden with driveway to the side providing off parking. The entrance door leads you to a central L shaped hallway with electric storage heater and all the living space is arranged around. The lounge itself has electric storage heater and a wide picture window overlooking the front elevation. The bungalow offers two bedrooms; one single bedroom lies to the front and a great sized double bedroom room lies to the rear, again with electric storage heater. The bathroom is finished in white and has a bath with electric shower above, WC, wash hand basin and tiling to the walls. Lastly, the kitchen benefits from being extended to create a dining breakfast area and has a door leading you out to the rear garden. The rear garden is laid to lawn with mature planted borders around and a personal door accesses the side garage which has an up and over entrance door.

Agents notes: There is no mains gas.

The property shows sign of structural movement. Due to the nature of the sale, we are unaware if this is historical or ongoing and would recommend any interested by seek further verification.
