This impressive four bedroom semi-detached period house was the subject of extensive yet sympathetic modernisation and improvement program. The present owner has subsequently commissioned same company to extend the property to create a fabulous dual aspect sitting room with a vaulted ceiling and wide bi-folding doors opening onto the rear garden.

Approached via an attractive porch, the front door opens into a spacious open plan living space incorporating the large dining room/family room and classic kitchen with an integrated electric oven, ceramic hob, cooker hood and dishwasher. The accommodation continues through to a snug/bedroom four with feature period fireplace and a ground floor double shower/cloakroom. Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms (the main bedroom having a feature period fireplace) and a good sized single bedroom. Completing the first floor accommodation is a modern family bathroom including a separate shower. The loft has been boarded to allow a good level of storage accessed by a pull down loft ladder.

The property is complemented by an attractive garden with a paved patio and steps up to a raised lawn and beds. There is a pedestrian side gate from Whyke Lane as well as double gates opening to a hardstanding area where there is a timber workshop/store and office, both with light and power.
