51 Merryfield Drive

Selsey, Chichester

Nestled in a sought-after location, this semi-detached bungalow presents a wonderful opportunity to acquire a delightful residence ready to be personalised. Boasting a convenient layout, this property features two double bedrooms.

A well proportioned living room provides the perfect space for relaxation and entertaining while double doors open to a conservatory overlooking the garden, flooded with natural light and providing a seamless transition to the outdoors.

The property benefits from its proximity to a variety of amenities, including the beach, local shops, and easy access to the bus route, ensuring convenience and ease of access to any desired destination. Boasting a westerly facing orientation, the rear garden presents an idyllic setting for outdoor enjoyment and al fresco dining. Providing a private escape from the outside world, this outdoor space is perfect for enjoying the sunshine and fresh coastal air.

Further enhancing the appeal of this property is the presence of a driveway with space for 2-3 cars (part of which can be found behind double wooden gates), ensuring ample off-road parking for residents. Additionally, a detached garage provides secure storage for vehicles, outdoor equipment, or any other belongings, further enhancing the practicality and functionality of this residence.
