WOODLAND WONDER

“In that oh so desirable edge of village location, towards the end of a no through road backing on to woodland, this home is very accessible but feels wonderfully secluded.

You’ll see birds and wildlife aplenty here, yet you can walk to the shop, school, village hall and restaurant, so you really do have the best of both worlds.

A much-loved home that’s been continually updated and also offers cottage character, this is a place you must see.”

A delightful character cottage that's been extended several times, this appealing property combines period charm with ample space. It's lovely and secluded and incredibly private but it's also well positioned with neighbours around and the village on the doorstep. This is a home that effortlessly adapts to every need and can rise to every occasion.

A Home With Heart

Built in the mid 1800s, the cottage was extended in the 1920s and again by the current owners, who have been here for well over 30 years. They had seen the house on the market previously and had liked it, so when it became available again, they decided to snap it up – and have been here ever since. They love the period features, such as the original floorboards in one of the bedrooms, and have enhanced these by fitting a beautiful classic kitchen and by choosing bathrooms that are stylish and contemporary with a nod to the age of the house. It's proved to be a great place for celebrations and entertaining, with the owners often gathering family and friends here. A happy home indeed, it's been much loved by the owners since they first came here.

Come On In...

As soon as you open the front door, the entrance hall makes an excellent first impression, being bright and spacious, warm with the tones of the wood of the stairs, doors and beams. To one side you have the dining room, which would also make an excellent playroom, snug or study, with the main sitting room beyond. This is a lovely room with a bay window and a pamment-tiled fireplace where the owners have fitted an electric stove that has the cosy feel of a log burner without any of the effort or maintenance.

KEY FEATURES

At the other end of the house is the heart of the home – a magnificent kitchen dining room with bifold doors to a conservatory and space for both seating and dining. You can open this whole area up, and in summer, with two sets of French doors open to the patio, it's a wonderful place for hosting a group. Upstairs, the master bedroom is an excellent size and has a generous dressing area too. There are two other bedrooms up here, as well as a family bathroom with a beautiful rolltop bath.

Quiet With Community

Outside, the property benefits from a garage and a detached garden studio, which the owners use for entertaining. In fact, they sit outside the studio most evenings throughout the year, relaxing under the stars. From here they've seen so much wildlife, such as woodpeckers, deer and more, with the wildlife pond attracting even more diversity. They've even seen a sparrowhawk taking a dip in the bird bath. You're totally private sitting out here and the woodland behind the south-facing garden shelters you from the wind. Although you feel as though you're in the middle of nowhere, you have neighbours along this no-through road and you can stroll into the village in just a moment. There's a school, shop with Post Office, and a highly-regarded restaurant. The village hall hosts lots of regular groups and gatherings, including an art group, fitness classes and groups for pre-schoolers, so it's easy to get to know people and put down roots in the community if you're new to the area.
