Step into the inviting entrance hall and turn right into the generously sized living area, where a focal multi-fuel stove set on a stone surround creates a warm and cosy atmosphere. This well-proportioned room offers ample space for your furniture needs and can also be utilised as a dining area.

From the living room, you'll find access to a practical cellar, complete with power and lighting, ideal for additional storage.

The kitchen is thoughtfully designed with a range of base and wall units, a tiled splashback, integrated oven, hob, and space for an under-counter fridge and plumbing for a washing machine. This room also provides direct access to the rear garden.

On the first floor, you'll find two double bedrooms, both neutrally decorated and featuring charming rustic wooden floorboards.

The first floor is completed by a spacious bathroom, finished with tiled floors and walls. It includes a bath with an overhead shower, a pedestal sink, a toilet, and a convenient linen cupboard.

To the rear, the low-maintenance garden offers a delightful space for al fresco dining during warmer months. There is also ample room for bin storage and a useful outhouse.

Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (AML)

Please note that when an offer is accepted on a property, we must follow government legislation and carry out identification checks on all buyers under the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (AML). We use a specialist third-party company to carry out these checks at a charge of £42.67 (inc. VAT) per individual or £36.19 (incl. vat) per individual, if more than one person is involved in the purchase (provided all individuals pay in one transaction). The charge is non-refundable, and you will be unable to proceed with the purchase of the property until these checks have been completed. In the event the property is being purchased in the name of a company, the charge will be £120 (incl. vat).
