

A well-presented, spacious and light bungalow, situated in a most enviable private position, within an over 55's warden aided development, being sold with no onward chain.

Guide Price £240,000

Upon entering, the entrance hall leads into a study/single bedroom which overlooks the front elevation, straight ahead is the main double bedroom, with inbuilt double wardrobe, overlooking the garden.

The shower room offers a wet-room style facility with non-slip flooring.

Upon entering the spacious and larger than average lounge/dining room, you are greeted with superb dual aspect with a box bay window to one elevation and sliding patio door (giving access to the private garden) to the other, maximising the feeling of light, space and privacy.

The kitchen, situated off the lounge/diner, is again of good size and capable of housing a breakfast table with another view over the gardens.

Parking is available on site.
