Cawston

QUAINT RURAL CHARM

Filled with historic buildings and a sense of rural charm, Cawston is nestled in the Norfolk countryside, around 13 miles north-west of Norwich. With a thriving community, regular events are held at the village hall, and there's a Post Office and store, pub and doctor's surgery.

Located in a rural position on Marriotts Way, a trail of former railway trackbed, Cawston is ideally situated for walking and cycling. The north Norfolk coast is just a few miles away and is designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, with its miles of uninterrupted beaches to enjoy.

Pretty streets and lanes are lined by quaint cottages and handsome Georgian buildings in Reepham, just three miles away. Reepham has held its 'market town' status since 1277, continuing to hold a market in the square every Wednesday.

There's a large selection of shops for a town of its size, including: a small supermarket, several cafes and Dial House Restaurant and Bed & Breakfast. Furthermore, there is an art gallery, several antique shops, a newsagent, post office, library, health care centre, pharmacy, butchers, a whole foods and hardware store, and there are two further public houses.

The town has a highly regarded primary school and an 'outstanding' secondary school with an adjoining sixth form college. In the town there is a large park with a wide range of facilities including an adventure playground and public tennis courts.

The Cathedral City of Norwich is approximately half an hour by car and offers access to all the major rail links and Norwich International Airport.
