A fabulous opportunity to purchase a unique first and second floor duplex apartment forming part of an imposing Victorian manor house, originally built by the present owners' family in the late 1800's.

This individual home provides uninterrupted woodland and countryside views from each of the principal rooms and especially from the bright dual aspect sitting room/dining room. An external staircase leads up the front door of the apartment from a courtyard. Upon entering the front door you are greeted by a mezzanine entrance hall with stairs up to the main living accommodation and down to an inner hall with a casement door to a woodland facing balcony. Bedroom two and a cloakroom are also on this floor. On the second floor, the sitting room has a feature open fireplace and double doors opening to the kitchen. The principal bedroom has wall-to-wall built-in wardrobes and the bathroom is directly opposite.

The estate is accessed via double wrought iron gates opening to a long communal driveway leading down to the property where number 5 has an allocated parking space by the foot of the external staircase. Visitor parking is available in the grounds.
