The village of Haddiscoe comprises a couple of public houses and St Mary's Church which is Grade 1 listed building, a village hall which offers local events and a population of approximately 500. This south Norfolk village is situated 18 miles south east of the City of Norwich, on the A143 road west of the coastal town of Lowestoft. The market town of Beccles is within easy driving distance and this has a wide range of amenities including schools, shops, restaurants, supermarkets etc. Beccles also provides a train link to London Liverpool Street via Ipswich, while Haddiscoe Station has trains to Norwich and Lowestoft. Local Primary Schools nearby at Toft Monks and Loddon, with Hobart High School also at Loddon.

SETTING THE SCENE

Set back but fronting the main road through Haddiscoe, a well stocked and mature frontage can be found, with the twin driveway providing side by side parking, at the end of the rear garden.

THE GRAND TOUR

Heading in the front, a useful porch entrance offers coat and shoe storage, with a further door straight into the main sitting/dining room. Centred around the feature brick built fire place, an inset cast iron wood burner can be found, with electric storage heating, window to front, stairs to the first floor landing, and space for a table under. A door leads into the fitted kitchen, with a range of wall and base level units, and space for an electric cooker, fridge, freezer and washing machine. Your eyes are taken to the rear garden view, whilst a further door leads to a conservatory which is used as a great seating area, but also a useful porch entrance. Upstairs, off the landing you find the family bathroom, a three piece suite with a shower over the bath and tiled splash backs. The two bedrooms are double in size, one with a built-in cupboard, and both with light and bright aspects.
