DESCRIPTION

Portman House is a prominent and well-located property in the heart of Birmingham's thriving business district, offering a highly desirable mix of retail and office space. The building comprises a ground-floor coffee shop, providing an excellent amenity for both tenants and visitors, along with three upper floors of office accommodation. These office suites benefit from an elevated position, offering views over St Philip's Square, which enhances the overall appeal of the space.

The property offers a range of modern facilities, including 24-hour access and is equipped with intercom access and CCTV security.

Access to the building is via a common entrance, which leads into a ground-floor reception foyer. An internal staircase provides access to the upper floors, with the subject suite being location on the second floor.

LOCATION

Temple Row West occupies a highly prominent location within Birmingham City Centre, overlooking St Phillip's Square at the heart of the Central Business District (CBD).

The property is well placed to benefit from Birmingham's transport infrastructure and is within easy walking distance of the Metro Tram at Bull Street and Snow Hill and New Street Railway Stations.

The CBD area is Birmingham's premier concentration of professional and business service companies with over 500 companies located in the area.
