Furnace Way

Congresbury, Bristol

21 Furnace Way is a handsome, detached, new-build house constructed in 2020 by the desirable and high-quality developer Strongvox. Built in a traditional period style, it boasts symmetrical proportions, pink elevations, and a handsome portico over the front door, all of which lend it a sense of style and grandeur. Situated within a select, small development of new homes, it is ideally located being close to the thriving village centre and its amenities, as well as rural walks straight from the doorstep, making it a wonderful family home.

The property offers approximately 1,416 sq. ft. of well laid out accommodation, including two reception rooms and a magnificent open-plan living/dining/kitchen area. It also features four spacious bedrooms, a lovely garden, off-street parking, and a large double garage with gym area.

Stepping inside, you'll find a bright and welcoming hallway with Karndean flooring and stairs leading to the first floor.

Conveniently located on this level is a cloakroom and a generous under-stairs cupboard providing ample storage space for coats and shoes. To the left, the spacious sitting room offers a modern, stylish space complete with bespoke fitted cupboards and open shelving, which frame an area for a flat-screen TV. Glazed French doors connect this room to the kitchen/dining/living area, allowing flexibility to either separate or integrate the spaces for entertaining. To the right is a second reception room, currently used as a playroom but easily adaptable as a snug or home office.

At the rear, the open-plan kitchen/dining/living area is a standout feature of the property. Bathed in natural light with bi-fold doors that open onto a large entertaining terrace, these seamlessly blend indoor and outdoor spaces. The kitchen itself is stunning, featuring a range of dove-grey cabinetry paired with a striking natural-coloured quartz worktop. High-quality integrated appliances include twin eye-level 'Neff' ovens, an integrated dishwasher, a separate larder, an integrated fridge/freezer, and a gas hob with an extractor hood. At the back of the kitchen, a practical utility room offers extra storage, plumbing for a washing machine and dryer, a sink, and a cupboard housing the central heating boiler. A side door has private and secure access to the garden and the garage.

On the first floor, there are four bedrooms (including a principal bedroom with an en-suite) and a family bathroom, all arranged around a spacious galleried landing. The principal bedroom, located at the rear, has wonderful far reaching rural views, built in wardrobes and features a stylish en-suite shower room. Two additional double bedrooms—one at the front and one at the rear—are tastefully decorated, while the fourth bedroom is a sizable single, ideal for a child or guest. Completing the first floor is a chic family bathroom equipped with a separate large shower cubicle, a bath, and a heated towel rail.

Outside

The front garden is has a low-maintenance design with a neat laurel hedge and footpath leading to the front door. A side return leads to the home's fully enclosed, south facing garden which has been attractively landscaped, creating several different spaces to enjoy. A raised terrace area, ideal for al fresco dining, is surrounded by thoughtfully selected plants and shrubs, creating a peaceful outdoor retreat.
