This period 2 bedroomed terraced cottage is delightfully located in a quiet tucked away position, close to the High Street with its wide range of amenities immediately on hand. Positioned in a courtyard setting, Silbury Place is just a handful of cottages and a reminder of what a lot of the local alleyways off the High Street would have been like in years gone by. Over the past few years, it has undergone a programme of improvement which includes a modern kitchen and flooring, a modern shower-room, up to date electrics and windows to name but a few. This means there's little for a new owner to do except move in.

The layout offers a living room with a former fireplace adding a feature and the window which overlooks the front. There's the stairs to the first floor (behind the door) and an opening into the kitchen. The shower room is on the ground floor and also houses the central heating boiler. On the first floor are the two bedrooms, accessed from the landing.

Outside is decking and paving plus a timber storage shed, ideal for bikes etc. There is no parking but it's only a short walk to St Saviours Way public car park and an annual pass can be purchased from the local council.

For those commuting it has hassle free transport links into Exeter and for schooling a prestigious secondary school with sixth form (Queen Elizabeth’s). In addition, it boasts a brilliant gym and leisure centre for New Year’s resolutions, three supermarkets for the weekly shop and a trading estate for any practical needs.
