Description

Ashtons are delighted to offer for sale this beautifully presented house, perfectly located close to all Berkhamsted has to offer but in a peaceful setting and with generous parking provision.

The house has been well maintained by the current owners and has a lounge with dual aspect windows and French doors leading to the garden. The spacious kitchen has all modern fittings and is a popular entertaining space for the family.

The first floor has two double bedrooms with an ensuite to bedroom one, a further single bedroom and there is a second 'family' bathroom. The second floor has an additional double bedroom and ensuite.

Outside the garden mainly laid to lawn and has a raised deck to the rear which the family use for alfresco dining in the warmer months! The double car port offers access to a useful store room for bikes, garden equipment etc.

We highly recommend booking a viewing to appreciate all this wonderful house has to offer

Location

Berkhamsted is a historic market town in the Chilterns countryside, with great amenities including shopping, sports, and education. Commuters benefit from the A41 bypass connecting to the M1 and M25, and a mainline station providing fast and frequent trains to London (Euston). It offers a blend of history, convenience, and natural beauty.
