The village of Bradwell offers a wealth of amenities including a supermarket, petrol station, and a few other small shops all within walking distance. Regular buses run from and to other parts of Bradwell and onto Great Yarmouth via Gorleston. Gorleston is about two miles away and has many more shops and amenities including a library, medical centre, banks, food stores, a supermarket, specialist shops, and some chain stores. Gorleston has a beautiful award winning unspoilt sandy beach and is a favourite with locals as it is much quieter than Great Yarmouth yet still retains some seaside attractions including cafes, shops and amusements. The James Paget regional hospital serving the eastern coastal area is also situated in the town.

SETTING THE SCENE

The property is approached by a pedestrian footpath leading to the terrace row, with a front brick wall and wrought iron gate providing a shared access to the lawned front garden.

THE GRAND TOUR

Stepping inside, the hall entrance is finished with wood effect flooring and stairs rising to the first floor landing. The built in storage cupboard and door take you to the kitchen and main living space. The sitting room enjoys front facing views via two uPVC double glazed windows, with fitted carpet underfoot and a wall mounted electric heater. The kitchen/dining room runs across the rear of the property with a range of wall and base level units, including space for general white goods and electric cooker, with tiled splashbacks and flooring, electric heater and door to rear garden.

Heading upstairs, the carpeted landing offers a built-in airing cupboard and storage. Two bedrooms lead off the landing, with the third interconnecting via the second. The main bedroom sits to the rear of the property, with fitted carpet underfoot and uPVC double glazed windows, whilst the smallest bedroom includes a built-in storage cupboard. The family bathroom completes the property with a white three piece suite, storage under the hand wash basin, shower over the bath and tiled splashbacks.
