The property is situated at the centre of the Broadland Village of Brundall. Located East of the City, excellent transport links via Road and Rail can be enjoyed. The Village itself has an abundance of amenities including the Train station, Village Shops, Post Office, Primary School, Doctors' Surgery, Dentist Surgery, Library and Public Houses. The property is close to the A47, and within a short walk of the local Co-op food store.

SETTING THE SCENE

Siding onto the road, low maintenance shingle gardens can be found to the front and side, with a further raised garden bisected by the main pathway leading to the terrace row, which offers a range of mature shrubbery and hedging. Steps lead down to the main entrance door with a gated access to the rear garden.

THE GRAND TOUR

Heading inside, the hall entrance is finished with tiled effect flooring and a useful built-in storage cupboard with a door leading to the modernised ground floor cloakroom - with a white two piece suite and half tiled walls. The kitchen sits adjacent with a re-fitted range of high gloss white wall and base level units with a U-shape arrangement of work surfaces and space for an electric cooker and general white goods. A front facing uPVC double glazed window offers natural light, and the wall mounted gas fired central heating boiler is concealed to one corner, with tile splash-backs and under cupboard lighting running around the work surface. The main living space is open plan and finished with fitted carpet and a window with uPVC double glazed French doors onto the south facing rear garden, whilst the L-shaped design of the room allows for soft furnishings and a dining table. Stairs rise to the first floor landing with a large built-in storage cupboard sitting under.

Heading upstairs the carpeted landing includes a loft access hatch and built in airing cupboard, with doors leading to the three bedrooms - all of which are finished with fitted carpet and uPVC double glazing. The two larger bedrooms include built-in double wardrobes and the rear enjoys a south facing aspect looking over the garden and green space. Completing the property is the modernised shower room with a white three piece suite including a walk-in shower with aqua board splash backs, useful storage under the sink, heated towel rail and wood effect flooring.
