ALL THE REASONS

West Winch

IN NORFOLK
IS THE PLACE TO CALL HOME

West Winch is a few miles south of King's Lynn. The village is well-served and boasts a popular social club offering both a bar and function room and sporting facilities such as tennis courts, football pitch and bowls green. There are takeaways and a hairdressers in the village, along with a post office and store.

Perched on the banks of the River Ouse, King's Lynn has been a centre of trade and industry since the Middle Ages, and its rich history is reflected in the many beautiful buildings which still line the historic quarter.

It's easy to see the appeal of this central location with a clutch of high street retailers and independent restaurants in the town's Vancouver Centre. The Majestic Cinema and King's Lynn Alive Corn Exchange are the place to catch a film or show, or check out what's on at St George's Guildhall, the UK's largest surviving medieval guildhall, today a vibrant arts centre. The town also has good schools, a swimming pool, ten-pin bowling alley, the Queen Elizabeth II Hospital and there are various supermarkets and superstores.

The Sandringham Estate is about five miles away with attractive walks through Sandringham Woods. Slightly further away is the north west Norfolk Coastline with its beautiful long, sandy beaches. For the golfer there are courses in King's Lynn and Middleton, and on the coast there are the challenging links courses of Hunstanton Golf Club and The Royal and West Norfolk Golf Club at Brancaster.

With Cambridge, Peterborough and Norwich all within an hour's drive and a direct rail line into London King's Cross arriving in the capital in just 1 hour 40 minutes, King's Lynn continues to attract a growing number of professionals seeking an easy commuter route.
