Tottenham Hale now and then...

The café lifestyle can be yours. Tottenham Hale is a vibrant, historic part of London undergoing massive regeneration.

The River Lea flows majestically through, and historically brought timber to Tottenham Hale by boat for the large industrial factories that once stood here.

Now it is a welcoming and bustling place, offering eateries, shops and gyms to residents and visitors alike. You'll find independent cafés brimming with charm or traditional pubs to while away an evening.

For football fans, the Tottenham stadium is a half-hour walk away and for those who get itchy feet, plenty of options jostle for attention, including a climbing centre and circus skills school.

At the heart of the new development lies a beautiful new piazza offering you a Mediterranean vibe of local coffee shops, designer shops, trendy bars. With a stylish Everyman cinema also in place, date nights and social meet ups will be at your fingertips, so whether you're relaxing in the area or 15 minutes away in central London, here you can seek a truly metropolitan life.

Unwind into nature

Just 10 minutes' walk away lie the beautiful and protected Walthamstow Wetlands. This 211-hectare reserve is made up of 10 reservoirs and offers you the chance to walk or cycle through over 13 miles of untamed natural landscapes. You'll find exceptional wildlife all around you including the fascinating species of birds, such as the pochard and gadwall, and a useful café offers you a chance to relax amid panoramic views.

You'll find space to relax and watch the world go by in Markfield Park, a beautiful green space with football pitches, a playground, café and areas to picnic in with friends and family. You can also visit the historic Beam Engine & Museum.

Elsewhere you'll find plenty of other chances to unwind in tranquil settings. A canal running alongside the River Lea, the Lee Navigation offers you 50 miles of public walking and bicycle paths – enough to wear out even the hardest of adventurers!

And for those who love to wander, you'll find plenty to explore. Why not enjoy a seasonal ale at the Beavertown Brewery, or peruse the literature festival at the Bernie Grant Arts Centre? After a bracing walk round the wetlands, you could sup a coffee at the Blooming Scent café or nibble deli delicacies at Table 13.

Ownership

A woman with voluminous curly hair is shown in profile, drinking from a teal-colored mug. She is wearing a light grey tank top. The background is a kitchen with a white countertop, a glass blender, and a window with blinds. The lighting is soft and natural, suggesting a morning or afternoon setting.

Get onto the property ladder your way

Can't afford a full mortgage? Don't have a hefty deposit to buy outright? Why not try buying a share of your home and renting the rest?

Shared Ownership lets you buy between 25% and 75% of the full value. Your deposit is based on the share you buy (not the full value). Each month you'll pay a mortgage on the share you own and pay rent to Sage Homes for the remaining share.

Over time you can buy more shares in your home (called 'staircasing') right up to 100%.

Why Shared Ownership?

Topaz wants to buy her next home and wants a newbuild that costs £300,000. She's found a two year fixed rate mortgage at 5% but wants to look at her options.

- | | | |
|----------|--|--|
| 1 | Topaz buys a home at full market value (5% deposit and 5% fixed rate mortgage) | Deposit: £15,000
Monthly mortgage payments: £1,685 |
| 2 | Topaz buys a Shared Ownership home. She mortgages for 25% of the home with a 5.75% fixed rate mortgage, renting the other 75%. | Deposit: £3,750
Monthly mortgage and rent payments: £964 (£448 mortgage; £516 rent) |
| 3 | Topaz buys a Shared Ownership home, but a higher percentage. She mortgages for 50% of the home at the 5.75% fixed rate, renting the other 50%. | Deposit: £7,500
Monthly mortgage and rent payments: £1,240 (£896 mortgage; £344 rent) |

Shared ownership could save Topaz just over £17,000 over two years and will give her a brand new, energy-efficient home.

1. Sage Homes will be your landlord and are regulated by the Regulator of Social Housing.
2. Rental will be 2.75% of the share you rent. Fixed for the first year.
