Immaculately presented property with immense character

Completely rebuilt in 2005 to a very high standard

4 acre paddock, stabling for 4 horses, hay barn and outbuildings

Double garage with further accommodation above which subject to planning permission could provide a separate property for rental potential, air b & b or granny annexe

Stunning views over the Dysynni Valley to Bird Rock and the Snowdonia National Park

Troed y Rhiw is a very unique property, unassuming from the front original elevation but greatly extended to the rear. The total renovation and extension project was completed in 2005 to a very high specification and offers an exceptional home with stunning uninterrupted views across its own gardens and paddocks and beyond towards Bird Rock, Cader Idris and the Snowdonia National Park. The landscaped grounds extend to approx ¾ acre incorporating a large duck pond with waterfall feature. It also has the added benefit of a 4 stable block and livery yard with almost 4 acres of paddocks. Plus a large stone built detached garage with guest accommodation above which, subject to planning ,could be converted into a property for rental, air bnb or granny annexe.

The original cottages and outbuildings date back to the 16th Century and are steeped with fascinating local history. (Cisterion monks).

Extensive floor plans that were used by the builders showing layout and dimensions of the accommodation on all levels are available for any prospective purchaser to view plus an album of pictures showing the project from start to finish.

The entire property including the garage has bespoke hardwood windows and doors and all the original sash windows of the cottage have been replicated.

There is wet system under floor heating in every room of the house.

For those wishing to work from home Troed y Rhiw benefits from super fast broadband with fibre direct to the property.

There is a large block paved car park at both the front and rear of the property.

Llanegryn is a small sought after village approximately four miles from the coastal town of Tywyn, and eight miles from the charming harbour village of Aberdovey which is renowned for its boating, fishing and 18 hole championship Golf Course. The village is surrounded by the famous Snowdonia National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty. The village also has a new area primary school.
