Directions

From Bridgnorth head south on the B4363 and after 3.2 miles the bridleway leading to the property will be found on the right-hand side as indicated by a Nick Champion arrow, immediately opposite the Glazeley War Memorial and access to the Church.

Follow the bridleway on foot across a grass field and down through a woodland section for about 175 metres and after crossing a stream, the bridleway leads up to and on past Picklebatch.

Please note there is no allocated parking for the property and legal access is on foot, horseback or cycling via the bridleway (or footpath). The B4363 is a main road with narrow verges with limited ability in the vicinity to park. The bridleway continues to the west from Picklebatch onto Ratford Farm drive which connects to the Deuxhill to The Down council lane.

Situation and Description

Land Registry Title Number SL101092

Picklebatch is situated in a very rural, peaceful and secluded setting nestled on the edge of a block of woodland which has the Borle Brook running through and a weir nearby. The property is accessed only via a bridleway and by a footpath from the B4363. Bridgnorth is only 3.5 miles from the property and offers a wide range of shops and services. The property is in the school catchment areas for Stottesdon C of E Primary School and Bridgnorth Endowed School.

Picklebatch has been in the ownership of the same family for 27 years and comprises of a period stone and part-timbered detached cottage with a clay tiled roof. The property benefits from character features, a Clearview woodburning stove, mains water and electricity, and private drainage. The property requires refurbishment and upgrading to create a fabulous rural retreat and provides the opportunity to live a relatively self-sufficient good life enhanced by the generous cottage gardens – in all the property extends to about 0.739 acre (tbv). The property is only suitable for cash buyers.

Accommodation

An entrance porch opens into the sitting room with Clearview woodburning stove on a brick hearth. An inner hall leads to the shower room with a Triton T80i electric shower, pedestal basin and wc, and to the kitchen with a stainless-steel sink/drainage and space for appliances. The study/snug has an open fireplace (not in use) and the breakfast room has a brick fireplace (not in use), a door to outside and an understairs cupboard.

Stairs off the sitting room rise to the first-floor landing. A double bedroom has an airing cupboard with a tank and shelving. A second double bedroom has an open fireplace (not in use) and a door through to a large double bedroom which can also be accessed by a set of stairs off the breakfast room.

Steps from the breakfast room lead down to a cellar (limited head height). A lean-to wood store is accessed externally.

Outside

A gated pedestrian access off the bridleway opens into the gardens which extend to the south and east of the cottage and slope down to a stream forming the boundary to the east, with woodland to the south, farmland to the west and the bridleway and woodland to the north. The gardens are mostly laid to lawn with established perennial flowers, shrubs and many productive young fruit trees. A patio al fresco entertaining area lies adjacent to the cottage. There is ample space within the gardens to create vegetable and soft fruit plots and keep poultry. There are three dilapidated timber garden sheds.

Services

Mains water and electricity are connected.

Private drainage – septic tank.
