LITCHAM

With a welcoming community and beautiful surroundings, Litcham is perfect for those looking to enjoy the idyllic village life.

The village has a popular pub, The Bull, which is a traditional coaching inn from the 17th century, although the foundations date back to the mid 1300s, which makes it the second oldest inn in Norfolk. Litcham Deli is the perfect place to meet a friend for coffee and cake, or to pick up some delicious locally produced goodies for later. There is also a doctors' surgery, village hall, post office / general store, and two schools: a primary, and the very much in demand, Litcham High.

Litcham Common is a managed Nature Reserve of 28 hectares of lowland heath and mixed woodlands, situated to the south of the village on the Nar Valley Way, a 35 mile long footpath from East Dereham to King's Lynn. Surrounded by beautiful countryside scenery, the river Nar is never far away whilst you are venturing along this path.

All Saints Church dates back to the 12th century, but was largely rebuilt in the early 15th century. There is also a Methodist Chapel on Front Street, which was built in 1909. The Priory at the bottom of Church Street is likely to have once been a Chapel or Hermitage.

Nestled in the Brecklands, in the heart of the county, Dereham is a classic market town approximately 9 miles away. There's a twice weekly market, on Tuesdays and Fridays, along with a strong cohort of independent and specialist shops and free parking make the town a fabulous place for an afternoon spent browsing.
