

62 Okus Road, Old Town, Swindon, SN1 4JP

£625,000

richard james

Okus Road

Old Town

Freehold | EPC Rating - C

 5
  3
  2

This fantastic five bedroom detached family home can be found on the cusp of Old Town offering scenic views for miles from the rear and a short stroll into the ever-popular centre of Old Town with multiple bars, restaurants, shops and much more.

The property is on split level and therefore offers a modern living experience consisting of; entrance porch leading into a modern integrated kitchen diner which has been updated by the current owners.

On the top floor is the master bedroom boasting great views, the first en suite and a generous walk-in wardrobe. The level down from the kitchen diner is made up of three double bedrooms all boasting rear views and one of which with another en suite.

The following level is made up of a snug room, utility and the family bathroom with double shower and corner bath.

On the lower ground level is a spacious living room with access onto the decking in the garden, a WC and the fifth bedroom currently dressed and used as the owners office which also has access onto the decking.

To the rear, there is a gorgeous garden with decking and lawn over two levels. The property also benefits from a spacious driveway and single garage with light and power.

Get in touch for your chance to view this amazing home!

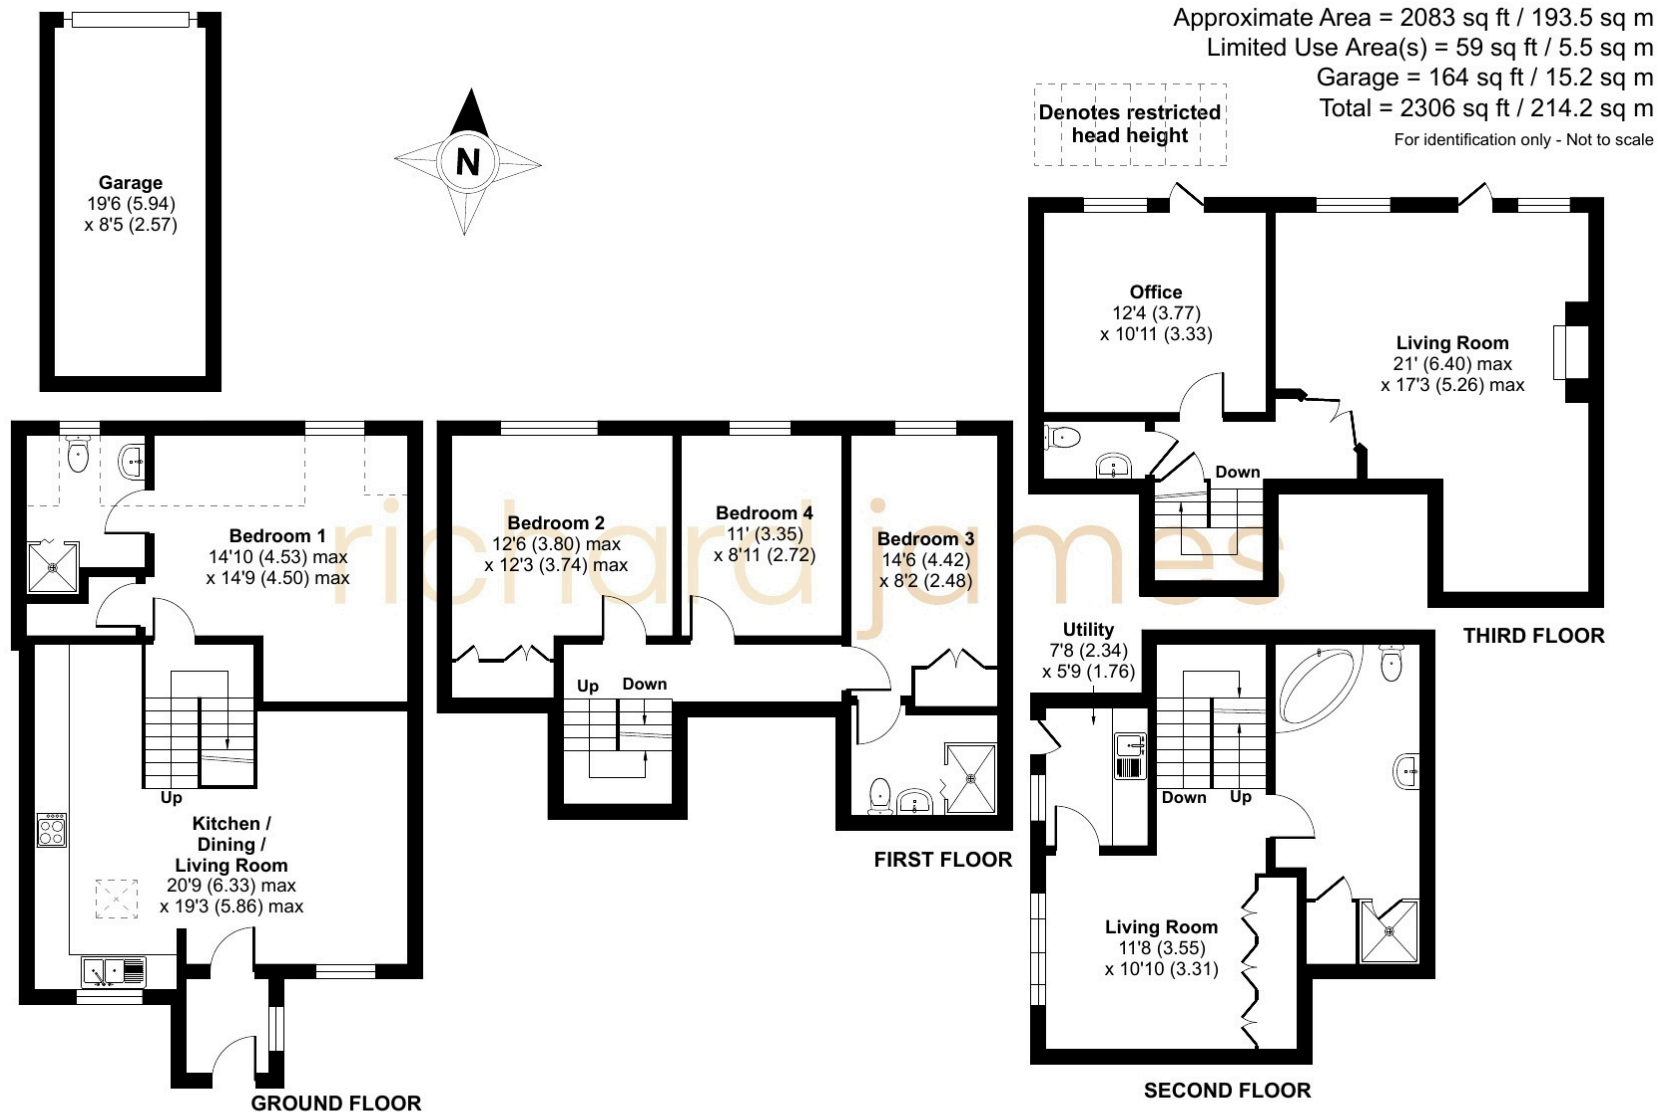

Floorplan

01793 520 720

oldtown@richardjames.uk

101 Victoria Road | Swindon | SN1 3BD

richard james

richardjames.uk