96 The Beach is located in a PRIME spot on the seaward bank of the sought after Snettisham Beach, a private and tucked away location "off grid" accessed via a private roadway serving only the chalets and nearby sailing club. This unique setting offers panoramic views out to the Wash and lakes to the front. The well-known RSPB Bird Reserve is within walking distance attracting a wide variety of wildlife as is the lively Snettisham Beach Sailing Club which holds regular sailing and social events. Amenities in the immediate vicinity include the beach shop and Fish & Chip takeaway with further amenities including supermarkets available in nearby Dersingham, Heacham & Hunstanton. This chalet is understood to have been built about 1935 and was one of the originals along the sea front. Much remains as originally constructed and the chalet now provides opportunity to further improve with potential to incorporate the integral boat house into the living accommodation. Outside there is a forecourt area off the road providing amenity space or parking, and additional parking or boat storage on the other side of the private road. There is access down to the lake, owned by the RSPB, where there is potential for sailing and kayaking etc via membership at the Sailing Club. On the seaward side the chalet is set back from the sea defence bank with outside space. There is direct access down onto the shoreline and along the sea bank in either direction. The accommodation comprises;
