King's Lynn is a historic market town situated on the banks of the River Great Ouse in West Norfolk. Offering a rich heritage with an array of interesting properties, there are two impressive market squares and delightful West facing quayside with eateries. Amenities are on offer in the town centre with national and independent retailers and further shopping opportunities available on the Hardwick Retail Park just to the South East of the town. There are good transport links afforded by the towns bus station and mainline railway with frequent services to London Kings Cross via Ely & Cambridge. The Hardwick interchange connects to the A47, A10 & A17 trunk roads with the nearby cities of Norwich & Peterborough accessible in around 1 hour by car. Queen Street is situated in the heart of historic Lynn located between the iconic customs house and Saturday Market Place and consists of attractive Georgian residences. No. 15, dating back to the same era, is positioned on the corner of Kings Staithe Lane and boasts an attractive double fronted red brick façade with pantiled roofs and an unusual curved corner. Grade II Listed, the internal accommodation is spacious with tall ceilings and an airy feel assisted by large sash windows which allow plenty of natural light to fill the rooms. Set over 3 floors including two good sized reception rooms, breakfast kitchen with utility, 4 bedrooms and study, there is also a useful cellar to the lower ground level with steps from the main entrance hall. Externally there is a pretty West facing courtyard garden to the rear which is paved with established planting making an ideal spot for alfresco entertaining.
