DOWNHAM MARKET, NORFOLK

Awaken the senses...

On the banks of the River Great Ouse, and dating back to Saxon times, Downham Market is one of Norfolk's oldest market towns. The attractive marketplace is immediately identifiable by its majestic black and white clock.

The town retains an intimate feel, with the community enjoying an array of independent shops and regular markets offering local produce, all set against a backdrop of fine historic buildings, impressive architecture and scenic countryside.

Top 10

Voted one of the happiest places to live in Britain, Downham ranked 6 in the top 10 list of an annual "happy at home" index compiled by Rightmove.

BROAD OAKS

A world of opportunity

Welcome to a place ranked as one of the Top 10 happiest locations to live in the UK.

The county of Norfolk comprises an array of picturesque towns and villages, rich in history, architecture and striking landscapes. With a great mix of local independent shops, friendly cafes and pubs, Downham Market is one such town. The perfect base for exploring The Fen Rivers Way, it's a fascinating place to watch the boats, have a picnic or indulge in a range of outdoor pursuits. With a great selection of local OFSTED-rated schools, Broad Oaks is the ideal family life, enriched by all the finer things the area has to offer.

The Great Escape

Capitalise on a location just an hour and a half from London, yet with 50% less living costs.

High grade transport links serve Downham having easy access to the M11, A10 or A1 from the south and the A47 and A17 from the Midlands and the North. A fast, reliable local transport network connects the region quickly and efficiently – further positioning Downham as a key contender for professionals and families looking to commute to the larger cities with direct trains from the town’s mainline station running to Cambridge every half an hour in 38 minutes, Peterborough in 1 hour and London Liverpool Street on the hour, at 1 hour 30 minutes. The region connects to both domestic and international locations via Norwich International airport an hour away and London Stansted at 1 hour 30 minutes.
