Features such as underfloor heating guarantee comfort and warmth across the property, while gated, allocated, parking enhances convenience and security for all residents.

The apartments are situated on the periphery of Summerley Private Estate and within a convenient distance of the beach, a recently refurbished convenience store, and the Felpham village centre. The village offers a wide range of facilities including shops, public houses and a sailing club, whilst the local golf club is only a few minutes away by car. Historic Arundel, the cathedral city of Chichester and the famous Goodwood motor circuit and racecourse can all be found within approximately 10 mile radius.
