If you're looking for village life without being too far from Exeter, then Tedburn St Mary is an excellent option. It's home to a great community, set in the Mid Devon countryside yet close to the A30 for easy links to Okehampton, Exeter and beyond. However, it's not just commuters that enjoy the village life. Tedburn has a pub, a shop, post office and primary school (bus to Crediton for secondary school and sixth form), plus there's plenty of clubs and teams to be a part of.

This semi-detached house fills a sought after part of the market, it sits well between the smaller family homes and the more expensive larger homes and it will suit a range of buyers. There's excellent space inside and out, little for a new owner to do, plus it's got those nice extras like a sperate utility room, two bathrooms and a conservatory. There's double glazing and central heating and the house and garden face south so there's plenty of light too.

The layout offers three reception spaces to the ground floor with a large living room, a separate dining room (offering flexibility to how this room is used) and both open into the conservatory which overlooks the garden. There's a useful front porch (which is ideal for coats and shoes!) and the hallway leads to the reception rooms and to the kitchen which is well fitted with a range of units and integrated appliances. To complete the ground floor is a family shower room and the separate utility with door to outside. On the first floor are three of the four bedrooms, all double sized with fitted wardrobes and served by a family bathroom. Up again, a loft conversion provides the fourth bedroom, complete with built in storage. Outside, the property is accessed via a small car park in which the house benefits from a designated parking space. In addition, a private driveway provides off-road parking for two vehicles. There are attractive planted beds to the front entrance and a pathway leads to the front porch. The gardens are deceptive with various zones, ideal for families and those with pets, it's secure and there's room to grow, play and simply sit and enjoy. Being south facing, and with easy access from the conservatory, it's a light garden that can be used for much of the year.

Agents' Note: The property is subject to a S157 local occupancy clause meaning that buyers must have lived or worked in Devon for the last 3 years.
