

An impressively presented two-bedroom bungalow offering spacious and modern living with an open-plan kitchen diner, a bright conservatory, and a versatile rear garden. Located in a peaceful cul-de-sac close to amenities, green spaces, and excellent transport links.

Beautifully maintained two-bedroom bungalow situated in the quiet and well-regarded Bishop Close, Rednal. Offering stylish and spacious accommodation all on one level, the property has been thoughtfully designed to suit modern living.

The heart of the home is the contemporary open-plan kitchen diner, complete with sleek units, generous worktop space, and integrated appliances. This inviting space flows into the conservatory, which offers additional living or dining space filled with natural light.

From the conservatory, sliding patio doors provide direct access to the rear garden, creating a smooth indoor-outdoor connection — perfect for relaxing or entertaining during warmer months.

The property also features a generously sized master bedroom, a comfortable second bedroom ideal for guests or a home office, and a well-appointed bathroom. Every room is well laid out to maximise space and comfort.

The rear garden is well-kept and designed to offer flexible use of space. Whether you're looking to relax, entertain, or garden, the layout allows for distinct zones to suit your lifestyle. Accessed via the conservatory, it provides a private and peaceful outdoor retreat.

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac in Rednal, Bishop Close enjoys a convenient and well-connected location. The property is within easy reach of Longbridge and Barnt Green train stations, offering direct links into Birmingham city centre—ideal for commuters. Just a short distance away is the Longbridge shopping development, home to a range of shops, cafés, and restaurants, while Great Park Rubery provides additional leisure options including a cinema, gym, and eateries. For those who enjoy the outdoors, the beautiful Lickey Hills Country Park is nearby, offering miles of scenic walking trails and green open space. The area is also well-served by reputable local schools, medical centres, and everyday amenities, making it a highly desirable setting for both convenience and lifestyle.
