FORT WILLIAM

Fort William is a town with a population of around 10,500, making it the second largest settlement in the Highland council area, and the second largest settlement in the whole of the Scottish Highlands — only the city of Inverness has a larger population.

LOCATION

Steeped in history, Fort William is surrounded by the most breathtaking scenery of mountains and lochs. The area offers a large range of sports and outdoor activities, including winter sports, hill walking, climbing, mountaineering, fishing and water sports, mountain biking and golfing. The area is the Outdoor Capital of the UK and attracts visitors all year round. There are bus and train stations, several supermarkets, a leisure centre with swimming pool, a public library, churches, medical centre, many pubs, restaurants, hotels and a variety of shops.

DIRECTIONS

From the A82, at the West End roundabout take the exit on to Lundavra Road. Continue up the hill turn, left into Connochie Road, take first right into Moray Place. Number 11 is within the second block of flats and is located on the first floor.

Subjective comments in these details imply the opinion of the selling Agent at the time these details were prepared. Naturally, the opinions of purchasers may differ.

The selling Agents have not tested any of the electrical, central heating or sanitaryware appliances. Purchasers should make their own investigations as to the workings of the relevant items. All room measurements and mileages quoted in these sales particulars are approximate.

Other items by way of fixtures and fittings not mentioned in these sales particulars may be available by separate negotiation. These particulars do not form part of any offer or contract and must not be relied upon as statements or representations of fact.

It should not be assumed that the property has all necessary planning, building regulation or other consents.

As this property is located in Lochaber which is a coastal region, flood risk could be an issue and therefore prospective purchasers are advised to check the flood risk (surface water, river & coastal) with SEPA (www.sepa.org.uk).

Prospective purchasers are advised to have their interest noted through their solicitor as soon as possible in order that they may be informed in the event of an early closing date being set for the receipt of offers. Upon receipt of an offer, Fiuran Property will perform a Money Laundering Check on purchasers as part of its Money Laundering Policy.
