Tenure: Freehold

EPC Energy Efficiency Rating: D

Accommodation

The front door opens into a light and airy hallway with a useful storage cupboard. The 'L' shaped living room has space for a dining table and has dual aspect windows with double glazed doors to the rear garden and a log burning stove. The kitchen has fitted units, including a corner pantry, integrated fridge/freezer and plumbing for a washing machine and dishwasher. The Stove cooker has four ovens and seven hob burners powered by LPG gas. The sun room is accessed from the kitchen and has a solid roof with windows above a dwarf wall and doors to the rear garden.

The bathroom has tiled walls and floor, with spa bath, walk-in shower cubicle, WC, a bidet shower head and wash basin. Heating is provided by the towel rail connected to the oil fired central heating system. There are three double bedrooms, one with fitted wardrobes and two with fitted cupboards, and two having dual aspect windows. One of the bedrooms is currently used as a study by the current owners.

The house is tastefully decorated throughout and is ready to become a new home for the successful purchaser.

Externally

The front of the property is approached over a cattle grid which is handy when cattle and sheep are herded through the village. There is ample space at the front for parking of several vehicles and a useful garage/outbuilding. There is a lawn to the front and rear, with flower borders and shrubs at various points. The current owners have a hen run to the rear garden, but this could be returned to garden if required.

Location

The Eden Valley village of Gamblesby is a rural idyll, surround by hills and around 9 miles north east of Penrith. It is close to the North Pennines AONB (Area of Natural Beauty). The village is accessed by local rural roads but is close to the A686, which is a popular road for motorists and bikers alike. Penrith has a range of high street and local shops, a monthly Farmers Market, a wide range of healthcare facilities, schools, leisure options, restaurants, cafes, as well as bus station and train station (on the West Coast Mainline). Penrith is also the gateway to the north lakes and is the hub joining the A66 to the M6 motorway.
