This beautifully refurbished 3-bedroom character cottage, combining traditional charm with contemporary finishes. Perfectly suited for families or professionals seeking a comfortable home, this property offers generous living space across two floors. The ground floor features three versatile reception rooms, providing ample space. The newly fitted shaker-style kitchen is bright and airy, finished with neutral cabinetry, plentiful storage, and a tiled floor, creating a stylish and functional heart of the home. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the living room, which retains its original character with a large brick fireplace. A separate sitting room and dining room further enhance the living space, offering flexibility to suit modern lifestyles. Upstairs, there are three good-sized double bedrooms, each well-proportioned and light-filled, complemented by a modern walk-in shower room. Multiple storage solutions are thoughtfully integrated throughout the first floor, maximising space and practicality. Externally, the property benefits from a fenced side garden, perfect for outdoor relaxation, and a gravel parking area. This cottage beautifully blends character features with modern upgrades, including the stylish kitchen and shower room, making it a ready-to-enjoy home for those seeking charm, space, and comfort in a convenient location.
