Handsome traditional forecourted end terrace home with extended and versatile ground floor accommodation and a pleasant enclosed rear garden, situated on the edge of the town centre.

John German

An ideal first home or downsize, internal inspection of this deceptively spacious home is imperative to appreciate its retained character and features, room dimensions, and the extended ground floor accommodation, plus the work done by the current owners, including replacement doors and windows to the front, and its pleasant, good sized enclosed rear garden.

Occupying a slightly elevated position on the edge of the town centre, within easy reach of its wide range of amenities including several supermarkets and independent shops, public houses and restaurants, coffee houses and bars, train station, schools, modern leisure centre and the multi-screen cinema.

A replacement composite and part obscure double glazed entrance door opens to the living room, providing a lovely introduction to the home, with a feature oak floor, focal chimney breast with a log burner set on a tiled hearth and a useful understairs cupboard. The inner hall has stairs rising to the first floor and a uPVC part double glazed door to the outside. The fitted dining kitchen has a focal inglenook fireplace which has space for a log burner and a tiled hearth, plus a timber mantle. There is a range of base and eye level units with timber worktops and an inset sink unit set below the side facing window, space for electric cooker with extractor over, plumbing for washing machine and additional appliance space. The useful lobby area has a fitted work surface and space for appliances, plus a sliding door to the fitted bathroom which has a white suite incorporating a panelled bath with a mixer shower over. Completing the ground floor accommodation is the versatile dining room which could easily be used as a second sitting room or occasional bedroom, depending on your needs, with wide French doors opening to the outside entertaining area.

To the first floor, the pleasant landing has a rear facing window providing natural light, fitted airing cupboard and doors leading to the two good size bedrooms, each able to easily accommodate a double bed. The rear facing master has the benefit of a walk-in wardrobe. Finally, there is the fully tiled shower room which has a white suite incorporating a double shower cubicle with an electric shower over.

Outside to the rear, adjacent to the French doors in the dining/sitting room, is a decked seating area providing a lovely entertaining area with gravelled edging, leading to further timber decking which has a pergola, space for a shed, and a wrought iron gate leading to the enclosed garden laid to lawn, with well stocked borders. An enclosed passage to the side of the property provides access to the front. To the front is a forecourt with shrubs.
