Tucked away on the lower end of Barley Lane, this two-bedroom terraced home places you just a short walk from the heart of Hastings Old Town — perfect for morning strolls to the seafront, weekend coffee at local favourites, or browsing the antique shops and galleries that line George Street. Behind its recently redecorated frontage and stable-style front door, this home offers an easy, low-maintenance base with characterful touches and a surprising sense of seclusion.

Inside, the ground floor includes a compact living room with exposed brick fireplace and laminate flooring — ideal for a small sofa and reading nook. The kitchen sits to the rear and offers a simple, practical layout, with space for freestanding appliances and a stable door opening to the rear courtyard — a private outdoor spot to enjoy a cup of tea or grow a few herbs. A downstairs WC with shower and window brings added convenience.

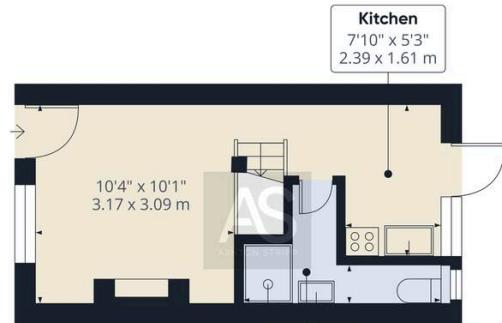

Upstairs, the front-facing main bedroom also features an original brick fireplace and space for wardrobes or storage. A second smaller double bedroom overlooks the rear, and could easily work as a guest room, dressing room or study. The home is double glazed throughout and warmed by gas central heating.
