PROPERTY OVERVIEW

This well-presented four bedroom, two bathroom detached house is tucked away in a private position on a generous corner plot, making it a great choice for families or those who love their own secluded space. The tarmac driveway leads up to a substantial front garden, which gives a welcoming first impression, and a detached double garage, perfect for extra storage or parking.

Through the renovated porch and inside, you'll find a bright dining room, a handy study, and a sizeable utility room at the front of the house. Everything feels fresh, modern, and ready to move straight in.

Step outside to a well-proportioned, south westerly facing private rear garden that offers ample opportunity for both sunshine and shade – ideal for summer barbecues or a quiet evening drink. Both the front and back gardens have a large lawn area with mature borders, offering plenty of space for children to play or for keen gardeners to get creative.
