41 Cossor Road

A well-presented three-bedroom red brick terraced home with garage and allocated parking

This attractive property is set behind smart iron railings with decorative plum slate chippings to the front, providing a neat and inviting frontage. Arranged over two floors, the accommodation is stylishly finished and offered in good condition throughout.

The ground floor features wood-effect flooring throughout, beginning with a spacious living room with doors providing immediate access to the garden. The well-appointed kitchen/dining room enjoys double-aspect windows that flood the space with natural light, providing room for a table and chairs. The kitchen is fitted with an integrated fridge/freezer, a standard oven, gas hob, and practical cupboard storage. A useful cloakroom and understairs storage complete the ground floor.

Carpeted stairs lead to the first floor, which has newly fitted carpeting throughout. The principal bedroom benefits from double fitted wardrobes and a modern en-suite shower room. Two further bedrooms, a contemporary family bathroom, and an airing cupboard complete the upstairs accommodation.

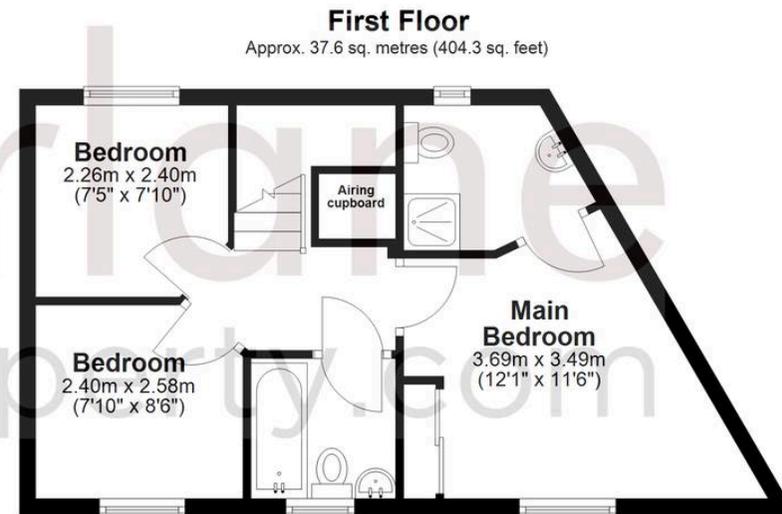

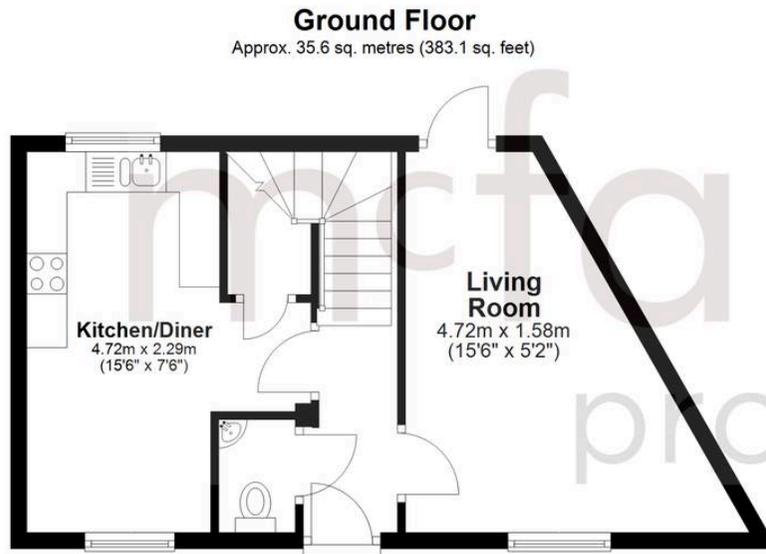

Outside, the garden combines decking and artificial lawn with patio steps leading to the allocated parking and garage.

Additional benefits include a prime location with excellent access to nearby railway links, ideal for commuting, and close proximity to local amenities and schools. Decorated in neutral tones, this property is ready to move straight into.

- Three bedrooms, en-suite to Principal
- Spacious living room with garden access
- Open-plan kitchen/dining room
- Garage, allocated parking & nearby rail links

Total area: approx. 73.1 sq. metres (787.3 sq. feet)
