Three bedroomed generously proportioned semi-detached family home situated within walking distance of Crickhowell High Street

Private cul-de-sac setting within walking distance to both primary and high schools

Two dual aspect reception rooms | Kitchen | Sunroom | Ground floor cloakroom

Two first floor bedrooms with hillside views | Four piece family bathroom suite | Second floor dual aspect bedroom

Pretty, paved courtyard style garden brimming with roses and clematis | On street parking | No connected chain

In an exceptional cul-de-sac location within walking distance of Crickhowell High Street, is this stone dressed, three bedroomed semi-detached family home sitting in a pretty, rose planted courtyard style garden and enjoying views towards Dardy and Llangattock Hillside. Generously proportioned, the accommodation includes two dual aspect reception rooms and a spacious kitchen with sunroom and cloakroom on the ground floor, plus three bedrooms which are planned over the first and second floor, being served by a four piece bathroom suite. For buyers wanted to be able to stroll into town, this home enjoys gated access to a pedestrian route away from the road and into town. Both the high school and the primary school are within walking distance too, as are the many cafes and pubs which make up this vibrant town. Parking is on street, and the property is offered to the market with no connected chain.

SITUATION | Crickhowell is a vibrant and historical market town, set in stunning Bannau Brycheiniog - Brecon Beacons National Park scenery on the River Usk, popular with walkers and cyclists and a sought after area for home relocation, tourism and visitors.

Winner of the first Best High Street in Britain Award, the town is renowned for its independent businesses including a PT/Gym studio, Yoga studio, grocery stores, butchers, delicatessen, family hardware store, zero waste shop, newsagent/post office, individual boutiques, optician, coffee shops, book shop with visiting authors, tourist information centre, library, tennis courts and cricket pitch.

Crickhowell also has dentist surgeries, a health centre, petrol station, pubs, gastro pubs, restaurants and hotels - including The Bear, open since 1432 - local community halls and a church. The area is well served by favoured schools for all ages and is very popular with young families as well as having an active senior community with many societies, clubs, choir, and a thriving U3A.

For more shopping, supermarkets and leisure, the larger Monmouthshire market town of Abergavenny is just 6 miles away. The town's railway station has regular services into central London and Bristol via Newport, with good road links giving access to the motorway for Bristol, Bristol Airport, Bath, Birmingham, the South West and London and "A" routes for Monmouth, Hereford, and Cardiff.
