Referral Fees-

As part of our commitment to transparency, we would like to inform you that we may receive a referral fee if we introduce you to certain third-party service providers. These include:

Solicitors – If we refer you to a solicitor for conveyancing services, we may receive a referral fee of up to £300 (including VAT) should you decide to proceed with their services. This fee is paid directly to us as a marketing cost and does not affect the legal fees you would otherwise be quoted. The exact amount may vary depending on the solicitor instructed.

Mortgage Advice – If we introduce you to Zi Mirza at The Mortgage Department, we will receive a referral fee of £75 (including VAT) should you choose to proceed with their services. This fee is paid by the mortgage advisor and does not impact the costs or mortgage products available to you.

Referral fees are a standard industry practice and help to offset marketing costs. They do not influence the advice or services provided by the solicitor or mortgage advisor. If you have any questions regarding referral fees, please do not hesitate to contact us.
