Situated on the periphery of the Bannau Brycheiniog – Brecon Beacons – National Park and enjoying a beautiful south westerly aspect from the rear across the beautiful Vale of Usk towards the Bloreng Mountain, this well-appointed four bedroomed family home is located on the highly desirable Western side of Abergavenny, favoured by residents and buyers alike due to the superb views and close proximity of country walks including one of the area's most famous peaks, Sugar Loaf mountain with the Sugar Loaf Vineyards also close-by. This area of Abergavenny is famed for its ease of access to highly favoured schools including Cantref Primary School, Belgrave Park and the popular local public house and restaurant, The Lamb and Flag, which serves to make this an undeniably enviable position in the town. Entered through a spacious hallway, this family home is configured with families in mind with two separate reception rooms and a large patio door opening from the sitting room to the rear for full exposure and maximum enjoyment of the garden. The kitchen is fitted with a range of traditional units and includes a number of integrated appliances and a useful breakfast area. Important for family buyers, there is a ground floor shower room and access from the hallway to the garage. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms all of which have fitted wardrobes and are served by a modern family bathroom. Outside the rear garden is beautifully presented and arranged for ease of maintenance. Parking is available on the driveway which fronts a large integral garage. For buyers seeking a chain free purchase, this delightful home is being offered to the market with no forward chain making it an ideal buy for a swift sale.

SITUATION | The town centre of Abergavenny offers comprehensive leisure and shopping amenities including individual boutique style shops, eateries and restaurants, grocery and newsagent stores, supermarkets, and a plethora of well-known high street shops. The town is particularly well served by schools for all ages at both primary and secondary level.

The area is internationally favoured as a foodie haven as well as an ideal base for professional and amateur leisure pursuits. There are many sports clubs and activities in the area including rugby, football, tennis, bowls and swimming and of course, cycling at both an amateur and a professional level can be found close-by.

For those seeking long walks, there are pathways leading to the River Usk and the Brecon to Monmouthshire Canal as well as the summit of Bloreng Mountain from which colourful hang gliders may be observed, plus many of the other mountains which surround this historic town.

Abergavenny also hosts a market several times a week. The town has its own cinema and leisure centre as well as several eateries for evening entertainment. Abergavenny railway station is very accessible whilst road links at the Hardwick roundabout give easy access to the motorway and "A" routes to Cwmbran, Cardiff, and Merthyr Tydfil and further afield to the M4 and the Midlands.
