

Holme House Barn

Halton Gill

Holme House Barn, Halton Gill North Yorkshire, BD23 5QN

An exciting opportunity to acquire a charming traditional detached stone barn with potential for conversion (subject to necessary consents) set in an idyllic location within the Yorkshire Dales National Park.

Guide Price: £100,000

DESCRIPTION

A delightful detached barn in a rural village setting with potential for residential development subject to necessary consents. Existing openings including a substantial cart doorway to provide natural light as well as views to the open countryside beyond.

Halton Gill is a small hamlet set amidst the stunning scenery of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, approximately ten miles from Settle, twelve miles from Grassington and twenty miles from the popular market town of Skipton.

Grassington offers a good range of local amenities, including shops, public houses and good secondary schooling and medical centre. The historic market town of Skipton offers a full range of facilities together with good road and rail links to the major conurbations of West Yorkshire and East Lancashire.

The barn has a gross internal area of 1009 sqft (93.7 sqm) over two floors and has most recently been used for storage. The lean-to structure on the southern gable end is in third party ownership. Any redevelopment would suit owner/occupation or holiday letting accommodation.
