MAIN DESCRIPTION

This charming mid-terrace home offers comfortable living space throughout, making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers, small families, or those seeking a cosy, conveniently located property. The entrance porch leads into a welcoming lounge through to the kitchen/diner area with an external door providing access to the rear garden. Upstairs from the landing there are two bedrooms and the family bathroom.

The home benefits from practical features throughout, including gas central heating, UPVC double glazing, and a well-balanced mix of living and storage space. With its inviting layout, outdoor areas, and convenient location near local amenities and transport links, this property offers excellent value and strong appeal for a wide range of buyers.

Hadfield is a charming and well-connected village located in the High Peak district of Derbyshire, just a stone's throw from the edge of the Peak District National Park. Best known as the filming location for the popular TV series The League of Gentlemen, Hadfield combines characterful charm with everyday convenience.

The village offers a range of local amenities including independent shops, cafés, pubs, schools, and parks, making it a popular choice for families, first-time buyers, and commuters. Hadfield train station provides direct services to Manchester Piccadilly, offering excellent connectivity for those working in the city.

Surrounded by beautiful countryside, including nearby Bottoms and Valehouse Reservoirs, Hadfield is perfect for those who enjoy walking, cycling, and outdoor activities while still wanting to stay close to urban centers like Glossop and Manchester.

With its welcoming community, scenic setting, and great transport links, Hadfield strikes an ideal balance between rural living and modern convenience.
